

Nanaimo Gladiolus and Dahlia Society

stems green, no visible anthocyanins

LARGE - Dahlia 'Cyril Higgo'

This cultivar is lacinated cactus type, red in color, and of size A. It was grown, named, introduced and registered in 2003 by Mrs. E. Fenton. It is derived from seed sent from Mr. C.O. Higgo in South Africa, and is of unknown parentage.

leaves broadly dentate with acute teeth,
3-5 leaflets, some bipinnatifid;
stems green, anthocyanin light dependent