

Nanaimo Gladiolus and Dahlia Society

MEDIUM - Dahlia 'Duet' This cultivar is formal decorative type, bicolor red and white, and of size B. It was registered in 1955 by Scott, Bremerton, Washington.

The normal flower is at left, a bicolor, but occasional dark red flowers without white petal tips are seen, as on the right

---

leaves bipinnatifid with acute teeth, 3-7 leaflets;
stems purple, high anthocyanin content

